$50,000 Trust Goes To Society Of Friends

SALEM — Most of a 28-year-old trust left by a Peabody pottery maker, which is valued at more than $50,000, will go to The Salem Quarterly Meeting of the Society of Friends, a Quaker organization with a meeting house at 67 Silsbee St., Lynn.

The society will receive 90 per cent of the trust which was created by Moses B. Paige of Peabody in his 1937 will. Paige died Dec. 7, 1941. He operated a wholesale crockery and pottery business on Central Street in Peabody.

The other part of the trust will go to James J. Kieran, 479 Loring Ave. and John P. Kieran, 16 Glover St., Salem, sons of the late Atty. James H. Kieran of Salem.

Judge Albert P. Pettoruto was informed of the settlement on Thursday at Probate Court following a conference between the parties and legal counsel.

Paige left his property in a trust for his son, James E. Paige of Peabody. The latter died Jan. 6, 1969. The trust benefits were then to pass to three nieces of the elder Paige's deceased wife, Eliza.

They are also dead. The trust then went to the Society of Friends.

Judge Philip J. Durkin of Salem, trustee, sought instructions from the court as to whether the beneficiary was legally qualified to benefit under the trust.

Atty. William E. O'Brine and Judge David T. Doyle of Salem appeared for the trustee. Atty. Gordon T. Roberts of Boston represented the society.

Asst. Atty. Gen. James J. Kelleher sent a communication that the remaining trust sum should go to the society. Several members of the society were present.

The Kieran brothers were beneficaries under the will of the younger Paige which termed their father "as a close friend of many years."

A Communication from Wellesley Meeting enclosing an unofficial invitation from Cody Waring, inviting us to a forum at Wellesley meeting to discuss plans to Abolish Salem Quarterly Meeting Sat Sept 12-1970

There followed a discussion of the value of Quarterly Meeting.

Lynn Meeting was disturbed about the plan to Abolish Salem Quarterly Meeting. As no one from Lynn Meeting was going to the forum, and Abe Sangrey announced that he was going the meeting approved of having Abe Sangrey express our opinion at this forum Meeting.

The Clerk will Communicate with Cody Waring of Wellesley Meeting, informing her that we are disturbed about this plan to abolish Quarterly Meeting. Particularly in view of the report of the Quarterly Meeting study Committee of the N.E.Y.M. of 1969 which made no reference to this approach. Lynn Meeting feels that Salem Quarterly Meeting has great historic value to Friends and is pliable enough to solve all problems of business, Social and religion. We would however approve that this plan be brought to Quarterly Meeting for discussion in October.

The Clerk read a Copy of a letter sent to Cody Waring, as instructed by the Lynn Monthly Meeting of Sept 9 relating to an invitation to a picnick to discuss plans to abolish Salem Quarterly Meeting.

Received Membership of Wayne Plourde.

Dear Richard Gove!

Received Membership To Wayne Plourde.

We have received a letter from our Member Wayne Plourde requesting transfer of Membership to Lynn Monthly Meeting.

Wayne has been a Valued and active Part of our Meeting, since its beginning.

As Quaterly Meeting Representative, he Worked hard in Organizing the Salem Quaterly Meeting at Landmark School, in April 1981

When North Shore Was Accepted as an Independent Monthly Meeting, As Meeting Recorder. He has Kept Membership records Systematically and Conscientously. In addition, his interest in Biblical History and interpretation has resulted in Contributions to our Vocal Ministry which are spiritually helpful to everyone.

With Appreciation of his Many Contributions to North Shore Meeting, We therefore Commend him to your love and Care. We shall Miss him

Sincerely yours-

Jean Putnam
